The casket was bung on each side with beautiful wreaths of white roses and lilies of the valley, and on its top was a cross of the same flowers.

The bearers ascended from the chancel to the door, meeting the casket there. Then the surpliced choir of forty male voices sang the processional hymn, "Hark, Hark, My Soul!"

Bishop Potter, Rev. Drs. C. E. Swope and Morgan J. Dix came after the bearers and were followed by Mr. Astor's physicians. Drs. Fordyce Barker and Francis Delafield, Morris J. Asch, Charles T. Poore and Francis Markoe.

The casket came next, and was placed upon a bier at the chancel rail, the mourners following and being seated in the first pews.
